TASK 3: Tips from a traveller

You will hear a podcast with tips from a traveller.

Underline the wrong words in the text and write the correct version in the space provided.
(You will have 10 seconds after the first listening and 15 seconds after the second listening.)

Welcome to the Hike Smart Podcast with helpful tips for travellers.

Here is my first tip about finding a nice place to sleep. If you only want to stay for one to three nights, you could think about camping. Sleeping outside is a wonderful experience. And if you are staying in a place for slightly longer, you can choose house sitting, for example.

Secondly, don't forget to think of health travel insurance. Medical treatment can be incredibly extensive. That's why travelling with health travel insurance is a must. Believe me, it is really worth the money. A few years ago I broke my leg in France. The pills came to several thousand pounds. But I only had to pay £65 - because I was covered for accidents.

Last but not least, be open for meeting beautiful people. Wherever you give them the chance, they can be wonderful. When I say "beautiful people" I do not mean physical beauty. I simply mean the soul of people in general. The moments when you make connections with total strangers will be unforgettable.
