Use the correct form of the words in brackets and find words of your own to replace the question marks in the following newspaper text

This is another interview with a man _____ (???) a female job:

Tom Collins _____ (work) as a nursery school teacher in Brighton _____ (???) almost two years. There he _____ (have) to take care _____ (???) young children from about two to five years of _____ (???), often from families with problems.

"I _____ (enjoy / work) with the kids. Some of them are _____ (???) difficult _____ (deal) with. If their parents _____ (break up), they _____ (react) badly in most of the cases. You know, the majority of my kids _____ (bring up) by single mothers _____ (have) their own problems and even these very young children _____ (???) most of the things _____ (go) wrong _____ (???) home. Quite often their behaviour _____ (become) aggressive as a _____ (???) of family problems. If somebody _____ (tell) me about that before I _____ (give) this job, I definitely _____ (not / believe) him.
I _____ (not / ???) that women are naturally better nursery school teachers than men _____ (be). Actually anybody _____ (prepare) to help children _____ (have) no difficulty at all _____ (look after) them. I _____ (tell) by my own group of children several times that they really _____ (not / mind / be) with a man for a change, especially _____ (???) they _____ (not / see) their fathers very much. So probably I _____ _____ (have) exactly the same problems if I _____ (be) a woman."
